D. H. GILBERT,

Grower of Choice Watermelon Seed

Dealer in Fertilizers

Monticello, Fla., Jan. 1st, 1905.

Gentlemen:-I am prepared to book orders for delivery, fall of 1905, as soon as seed are properly cured. My facilities for growing the different varieties are first class, and my practical knowledge of the business, gives me superior advantage in producing first class stocks. The prices herein quoted are for early orders, and subject to change without notice after twenty days from date. If my supply of planting stock of any item becomes exhausted I can only accept further order for such items conditionally on stock being furnished by customer, at rate of two pounds for each 100 pounds ordered, such stock to be charged my account at net contract price. Will plant other standard varieties not herein listed, if planting stock is furnished by customer, as mentioned above and quantity ordered is 100 pounds or more. Terms of payment: Draft payable (with exchange) sixty days from date of shipment, to be accepted and sent me promptly on receipt of each invoice and bill of lading. If such draft is not promptly issued as stated, then each invoice becomes due in twenty days from date, without discount. In event of failure, short or unmarketable crops, deliveries will be made pro-rata, and without responsibility for my part for such shortage and failures. Deliveries are made f. o. b. at Monticello, Fla. Bags charged extra at wholesale cost to me.

Faithfully Yours,

D. H. Gilbert.
